Pourquoi filmer une histoire quand on peut l'écrire ? Pourquoi l'écrire quand on va la filmer ? L'idée de ces Contes m'est venue à un âge où je ne savais pas encore si je serais cinéaste. Si j'en ai fait des films, c'est parce que je n'ai pas réussi à les écrire. Et si, d'une certaine façon, il est vrai que je les ai écrits- sous la forme même où on va les lire - c'est uniquement pour pouvoir les filmer. Les Contes Moraux sont conçus comme six variations sur le thème suivant : tandis que le narrateur est à la recherche d'une femme, il en rencontre une autre qui accapare son attention jusqu'au moment où il retrouve la première. Sur ce thème central amplifié, modifié, transformé, inversé, d'autres motifs s'entrecroisent, se combinent, courent en profondeur ou resurgissent en surface. La réunion des Contes en un seul volume permet de saisir la complexité de la thématique des films de

Rohmer, et de suivre, ligne par ligne. le jeu chatoyant de ses oppositions et de ses correspondances.

Rohmer next directed a series of six contes moraux or moral tales beginning with La Boulangère de Monceau 1963 The Bakery Girl of Monceau and La Carrière de Suzanne 1963 Suzanne's Career Both films were commercial failures and Rohmer turned his attention to directing television documentaries
