Suite à une courte amnésie, Piéric se retrouve séquestré dans le secteur fermé de psychiatrie. Impossible de s'évader. Il sera drogué quasiment à mort à l'Haldol surdosé, durant six mois sans relâche, même après sa sortie de l'hôpital. Marqué à vie par cette torture incompréhensible, il commence alors une enquête pour comprendre, dans un premier temps, l'influence du Père Stan tout au long de l'année précédant cette amnésie. Pourquoi ce prêtre hors du commun, qu'il admirait exagérément, l'a-t-il évincé du groupe de jeunes et de sa paroisse ? Pourquoi Annabelle, dont il était éperdument amoureux, a-t-elle transformé son amitié pour lui en une haine féroce ? Pourquoi tous ses amis très religieux, ont-ils soudain décidé de le bannir collégialement ? Tous ces comportements étranges, advenus au même moment, ont-ils un lien avec son « hospitalisation » ? Pour le savoir, Piéric entreprend, faits à l'appui, l'analyse détaillée de la personnalité du Père Stan. Libéré de son emprise, il convoque tous ses souvenirs des quatre années passées avec lui. C'est le point de départ d'une découverte qui va dépasser la fiction.
