novella. The boy who saw is a novel which reminded me of two prominent authors neither of which i suspect the author will find a poor parison they are dean koontz and dan brown dean koontz for the chase structure with the central characters pursued from the start by several parties even if not in the horror sense but the thriller hence the connection to dan brown and his robert langdon. You can read

The searcher is the first novel in the solomon creed series i was totally absorbed while reading this novel as the writing is extremely well done and very descriptive solomon creed is an unusual character and definitely a multidimensional one.
