"Reseña del editor Caperucita, La Bella Durmiente, El Gato con botas... Son relatos que todos creemos conocer. Sin embargo, las versiones que recopiló Perrault hace más de tres siglos, eran mucho más oscuras. Se idearon en una épocaos enseñan que, a veces, mucho menos amable que la nuestra, para inculcar lecciones que podían implicar acercarse o alejarse de la propia tumba. Por ese motivo, en los cuentos de Perrault caben el hambre, la miseria, el abandono infantil, los malos tratos y la propia muerte. No siempre se consigue vivir felices para siempre. Esta edición recupera una traducción al castellano realizada en 1883, que enriquece el texto con el sabor de lo añejo, así como varias ilustraciones realizadas en el mismo periodo."
