His teenage crush on Allie ruined her high school experience. Now that Cole is back in Arcadia Valley, will their reunion spell doom or salvation this time around? Allie Bigby knows she's the family joke. But she's got big plans for her life and hopes that when her lavender business finally takes off, she'll achieve not only her dreams but gain some respect for herself. However, with the return of her high school nemesis, Cole Anderson, she's finding it easier said than done. Especially because, just like in high school, Cole keeps ruining everything! Cole Anderson has been in love with

Allie since elementary school. Until now, he had no idea he made her life so miserable. He'll do anything to make it up to her, except she's made it clear she doesn't want his help. Honorably discharged from the military after a career-ending injury, he's home only long enough to figure out what to do with the rest of his life now that his dream job is lost to him. However, when tragedy strikes Allie's lavender operation, Cole just might be the person to save it. If he's willing to do the one thing he always promised himself he'd never do. Can Allie bury the hatchet long enough to realize that there's more to Cole than she once thought- and just maybe, fall in love? If you love Christian romance series that focus on relatable characters, strong families, and abiding faith — clean, wholesome, sweet, and inspirational romances — you'll love Danica Favorite's Legacy of the Heart series. About the Legacy of the Heart series: These stories are part of the multi-author Arcadia Valley Romance series, where a foodie culture and romance grow hand-in-hand. In this sub-series, as Enid Bigby ages, her grandchildren step up to preserve the family farm, sharing the traditional ways with the community. As they work to preserve their legacy, the new generations find it's about more than the farm — it's about staying true to their hearts. Buy the rest of the series: LEGACY OF THE HEART1.
