"Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Ana Enshina was born in Moscow in 1994, and learned to draw when she was five years old. Her mother wanted her to have a beautiful handwriting, so she spent almost single day of last seventeen years drawing and painting. Through the connections she made with great tutors and fellow artists she met along the way, she created her own unique style. A few years ago, she decided to study architecture, but found she couldn't stop painting, and one night while trying a set of new paints her dot drawing style was born. She is grateful for all the friends who inspired her to paint and give her feedback, and for the family who sent her to art school and supported her along the way."
