"Synopsis This is a study of Menches, a village scribe of Kerkeosiris between 120 and 110 B.C., on the basis of the complete body of documents from his archive. The author presents the only source of material: the papyri found inside crocodile mummies at the Egyptian village of Tebtunis in 1899/1900. After exploring the precise nature of these papyrus documents, the book goes on to explore what we can learn from them about Menches' (re)appointments to the post of village scribe; his position in the Ptolemaic bureaucracy; his contacts - written and otherwise - with peers and superiors; his day-to-day tasks, mainly concerned with fiscal administration; and, in the final chapter, his dealings with a 'strike' of colleague village scribes and a 'strike' of farmers at his village. Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Arthur Verhoogt, D.Phil. (1997), Leiden, is a member of the Papyrological Institute of the University of Leiden, Netherlands."
