In a novel the entire book is written first then trying to find an editor or publisher in the case of a nonfiction book the book proposal in written first before you write the whole book if your book proposal template convinces the publisher then they will contract and pay you to write the book

Writing the entire book before selling it might not only be a time consuming test run but you won t have the insight and knowledge of how to produce a better book until you write the proposal many authors after finishing the proposal end up changing their angle perspective or narrative focus after better understanding what will sell in book form.
