"Buchrückseite Every year, 47,000 women around the world die due to botched illegal abortions. Those who survive risk imprisonment, while millions of others are forced to carry pregnancies to term against their will. Control of female fertility has long been an ambition of most states, societies and religions in the world. Although safe and efficient abortion technologies now exist, at least 138 countries restrict a woman's right to terminate pregnancy under various conditions?in some countries, abortion is forbidden even in cases of rape or threat to the mother's life. From fish bladder condoms to abortion drones to anti-abortion terrorism, 'On Abortion' gathers images, documents and testimonies about the repercussions of the lack of free, legal and safe access to abortion. Spanning centuries up to the present-day, this painstaking visual research reveals one extraordinary chapter in a history of misogyny that has been largely invisible until now. Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Laia Abril is a visual artist, photographer and bookmaker from Barcelona. After graduating in Journalism, she enrolled at FABRICA ? the Benneton artist residency; where she worked at COLORS Magazine as a creative editor and staff photographer for 5 years.
